Family Journey Activity Pack

Four free activities. One little travel kit.

1 Bingo | 2 Colour Quest | 3 Would You Rather? | 4 Story Trail

Road-trip Bingo - two boards to share

Choose a board and tick each thing you spot. Three across, down or diagonally makes bingo. Keep going for a full house if you like. Not every journey has every item.

BOARD 1

 Red car ☐	 Bridge ☐	 Leafy tree ☐
 Lamppost ☐	 Van ☐	 Brick house ☐
 Flying bird ☐	 Direction sign ☐	 Traffic cone ☐

BOARD 2

 Conifer tree ☐	 Lorry ☐	 Petrol station ☐
 Blue car ☐	 Wooden fence ☐	Puffy cloud ☐
 Roundabout sign ☐	 Chimney ☐	 Telegraph pole ☐

For passengers only. Stay seated and buckled in. Let the driver focus. An adult passenger can help younger readers.

Play online: milescape.co.uk/games

Print on A4, portrait, at actual size (100%). Black-and-white printing is fine.

Print the whole pack, or choose only the activity pages you want.

Colour Quest

Eight little sightings. One happy team.

Work together to spot eight vehicles in the colours below. Tick one box after each matching vehicle. Each vehicle counts once per mission. Write or draw what you spotted if you like. All eight boxes ticked? Mission complete!

◇ White

Find 3 vehicles

☐ ☐ ☐

What did you spot? Write or draw.

≈ Blue

Find 2 vehicles

☐ ☐

What did you spot? Write or draw.

● Black

Find 2 vehicles

☐ ☐

What did you spot? Write or draw.

△ Red

Find 1 vehicle

☐

What did you spot? Write or draw.

ANOTHER WAY TO PLAY

Prefer vehicle types? Try this separate eight-sighting mission.

4 cars ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐

2 vans ☐ ☐

1 lorry ☐

1 bus ☐

For passengers only. Stay seated and buckled in. Let the driver focus. An adult passenger can help younger readers.

Print on A4, portrait, at actual size (100%). Black-and-white printing is fine.

Would you rather?

Ten little choices. Plenty to talk about.

Take turns choosing A or B, then ask each other why. There are no right or wrong answers. Skip any question you like. For passengers only; let the driver focus.

01

A. Have socks that quietly squeak with each step

B. Have a hat that wiggles when you laugh

02

A. Have a sandwich shaped like a shoe

B. Have a pancake shaped like a teapot

03

A. Travel in a flying campervan

B. Travel in a submarine with a glass roof

04

A. Visit a library inside a cloud

B. Visit a garden inside a giant seashell

05

A. Understand what pigeons say

B. Understand what sheep say

06

A. Help a penguin choose a scarf

B. Help a giraffe choose a hat

07

A. Sleep in a cosy lighthouse room

B. Sleep in a cosy woodland cabin

08

A. Visit a festival of lanterns

B. Visit a festival of kites

09

A. Bake bread in the shape of a cloud

B. Make pasta in the shape of stars

10

A. Invent a flavour of ice cream

B. Invent a filling for a sandwich

Print on A4, portrait, at actual size (100%). No pencil needed - just talk.

Story Trail

Make up a family adventure, one sentence at a time.

Choose a starter or invent your own. Take turns adding a sentence at each step. Tell your story aloud; writing or drawing is optional. An adult passenger can help with reading.

CHOOSE A STORY STARTER

1. One morning, a tiny traveller boarded a train made of clouds.
2. A sleepy suitcase woke up just as its holiday began.
3. A paper boat set off across a puddle-sized sea.

1. Meet a character

Who is your traveller, and what makes them special?

A few words or a little drawing

2. Choose a place

What make-believe place do they visit on their journey?

A few words or a little drawing

3. Discover an object

What unusual object do they find, and what does it do?

A few words or a little drawing

4. A gentle problem

What small problem do they need to solve?

A few words or a little drawing

5. Unexpected help

Who or what turns up to help, and how?

A few words or a little drawing

6. Invent an ending

How does the adventure end, and what happens next?

A few words or a little drawing

Our story's title: _____

For passengers only. Stay seated and buckled in. Let the driver focus. An adult passenger can help younger readers.

Print on A4, portrait, at actual size (100%). Black-and-white printing is fine.